

The 21st UniServe Science Conference

An opportunity for tertiary science and mathematics educators to share ideas and keep up to date

Valley of the Giants
The Giant Tingle Tree

Photo credit: Ruben Phillips

30th September – 2nd October 2015
Curtin University and Murdoch University, Perth

Transforming practice: Inspiring innovation

Conference dinner Thursday 1st October 2015,
The University Club, UWA

Early bird registrations close 6th August 2015

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Professor Caroline Baillie
Chair of Engineering Education
The University of Western Australia

Professor Peter Taylor
Professor of STEAM Education
Murdoch University

Dr Cary Supalo
Assistant Professor, Chemical Education
Illinois State University

Professor Tina Overton
Professor of Chemical Education
Monash University

Submissions open from 16 April to 5 June 2015

1. Abstract only: Structured/extended abstract between 300-500 words
2. Non-refereed paper: Full article submission 3-4 pages long
3. Refereed paper: Full article submission 5-6 pages long
4. Ideas Exchange (Roundtable / "Nuts and Bolts"): Provides an opportunity to road test your work in progress or yet to be tried ideas, with colleagues in the field.

Conference website: <http://sydney.edu.au/iisme/conference/2015/index.shtml>